

Gulf Reported Violating Natural Gas Contracts

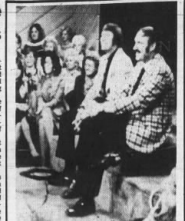

Continued From Page One
The Gulf of Mexico is reported to be in violation of its contract with the United States to supply natural gas to the United States. The contract, which was signed in 1961, calls for the Gulf to supply 10 billion cubic feet of gas per year to the United States. The Gulf is reported to be supplying only 8 billion cubic feet per year.

The Gulf is reported to be in violation of its contract with the United States to supply natural gas to the United States. The contract, which was signed in 1961, calls for the Gulf to supply 10 billion cubic feet of gas per year to the United States. The Gulf is reported to be supplying only 8 billion cubic feet per year.

The Gulf is reported to be in violation of its contract with the United States to supply natural gas to the United States. The contract, which was signed in 1961, calls for the Gulf to supply 10 billion cubic feet of gas per year to the United States. The Gulf is reported to be supplying only 8 billion cubic feet per year.

Drinking Age Bill Advances

Continued From Page One
The House of Representatives has passed a bill to raise the drinking age to 21. The bill, which was passed by a vote of 308 to 117, would require states to raise the drinking age to 21 by the end of 1978.

HYDE HEADMASTER ON DONORSHIP - Hyde School headmaster John H. Hyde is seen here with a group of students. Hyde is the headmaster of the Hyde School in Maine.

Carter Says Nothing Is Found Improper in CIA's Activities

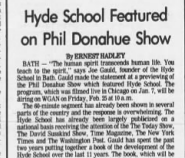

Continued From Page One
President Jimmy Carter has said that nothing improper was found in the Central Intelligence Agency's activities. Carter said that the CIA's activities were within the bounds of the law and that the CIA was doing a good job of its work.

President Jimmy Carter has said that nothing improper was found in the Central Intelligence Agency's activities. Carter said that the CIA's activities were within the bounds of the law and that the CIA was doing a good job of its work.

President Jimmy Carter has said that nothing improper was found in the Central Intelligence Agency's activities. Carter said that the CIA's activities were within the bounds of the law and that the CIA was doing a good job of its work.

Hyde School Featured on Phil Donahue Show

Continued From Page One
The Hyde School in Maine was featured on the Phil Donahue Show. Donahue, who is a well-known television host, visited the school and interviewed the headmaster, John H. Hyde.

HYDE HEADMASTER ON DONORSHIP - Hyde School headmaster John H. Hyde is seen here with a group of students. Hyde is the headmaster of the Hyde School in Maine.

Amin Links U.S., Others to Alleged Coup

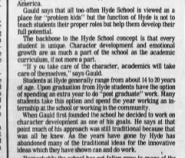

Continued From Page One
Libya's leader, Muammar al-Qaddafi, has linked the United States and other countries to an alleged coup in Libya. Qaddafi said that the United States and other countries were involved in a plot to overthrow him.

Libya's leader, Muammar al-Qaddafi, has linked the United States and other countries to an alleged coup in Libya. Qaddafi said that the United States and other countries were involved in a plot to overthrow him.

Libya's leader, Muammar al-Qaddafi, has linked the United States and other countries to an alleged coup in Libya. Qaddafi said that the United States and other countries were involved in a plot to overthrow him.

Storms Do Little to Help Drought

Continued From Page One
Heavy rains and storms in the Midwest have done little to help the drought in the region. The drought has caused significant damage to crops and livestock.

HYDE HEADMASTER ON DONORSHIP - Hyde School headmaster John H. Hyde is seen here with a group of students. Hyde is the headmaster of the Hyde School in Maine.

Rabin Beats Back Staff Challenge

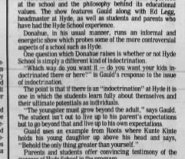

Continued From Page One
Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin has beaten back a challenge from his staff. Begin said that his staff was not competent to do their job and that he was the only one who could lead Israel.

Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin has beaten back a challenge from his staff. Begin said that his staff was not competent to do their job and that he was the only one who could lead Israel.

Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin has beaten back a challenge from his staff. Begin said that his staff was not competent to do their job and that he was the only one who could lead Israel.

Ault-Davis Deadlock

Continued From Page One
The Ault-Davis case has reached a deadlock. The court has ruled that the case must be dismissed, but the parties involved have refused to accept the ruling.

HYDE HEADMASTER ON DONORSHIP - Hyde School headmaster John H. Hyde is seen here with a group of students. Hyde is the headmaster of the Hyde School in Maine.

Rhodesian Offers New Racial Plan

Continued From Page One
Rhodesia has offered a new racial plan. The plan, which was announced by the Rhodesian government, calls for a new constitution that would give more rights to the black population.

Rhodesia has offered a new racial plan. The plan, which was announced by the Rhodesian government, calls for a new constitution that would give more rights to the black population.

Rhodesia has offered a new racial plan. The plan, which was announced by the Rhodesian government, calls for a new constitution that would give more rights to the black population.

Registration Fraud

Continued From Page One
There has been a case of registration fraud. A person has been charged with falsifying a registration form for a vehicle.

HYDE HEADMASTER ON DONORSHIP - Hyde School headmaster John H. Hyde is seen here with a group of students. Hyde is the headmaster of the Hyde School in Maine.

Pope Begins Lent with a Warning to Christians

Continued From Page One
Pope Paul VI has begun Lent with a warning to Christians. The Pope said that Christians should be more active in their faith and should not be afraid to stand up for their beliefs.

Pope Paul VI has begun Lent with a warning to Christians. The Pope said that Christians should be more active in their faith and should not be afraid to stand up for their beliefs.

Pope Paul VI has begun Lent with a warning to Christians. The Pope said that Christians should be more active in their faith and should not be afraid to stand up for their beliefs.

Budget Plans Seen Fueling Inflation Again

Continued From Page One
Budget plans are seen as fueling inflation again. The government's budget is expected to be a large deficit, which will lead to higher interest rates and higher prices.

HYDE HEADMASTER ON DONORSHIP - Hyde School headmaster John H. Hyde is seen here with a group of students. Hyde is the headmaster of the Hyde School in Maine.